Quite Nice! Sweet Red

Appellation: Oltrepò Pavese, Lombardia, Italy

Grape Varietals: Croatina, Barbera, Uva Rara

Alcohol Content: 7.5% by volume

Vineyard Information:

Location: Nestled in the picturesque hills of the Oltrepò Pavese region in Lombardia, known for its rich winemaking tradition and diverse soil types conducive to a variety of grape varietals.

Vine Age: 7-35 years, with each varietal carefully selected from vines that best express the unique characteristics of the region.

Farming Practices: Committed to sustainable viticulture, the vineyards are managed with an emphasis on environmental stewardship and respect for the land, ensuring a balance between tradition and innovation.

Winemaking Process:

Harvest: The grapes are hand-harvested at optimal ripeness to achieve the perfect balance of sweetness and acidity.

Fermentation: Fermented in stainless steel tanks under controlled temperatures to preserve the fruit's natural flavors and achieve a harmonious blend.

Aging: The wine undergoes a brief aging period in stainless steel to retain its fruity character and freshness, with a focus on enhancing the blend's complexity and smoothness.

Tasting Notes:

Appearance: Deep ruby red with purple hues, inviting and vibrant.

Aroma: A luscious bouquet of dark cherries, ripe berries, and a hint of spice, complemented by subtle floral notes typical of the Oltrepò Pavese terroir.

Palate: Medium-bodied and sweet, with a velvety texture that showcases a balanced blend of the three grape varietals. The wine offers layers of red fruit flavors, such as raspberry and blackberry, intertwined with a gentle acidity and soft tannins, leading to a pleasantly sweet finish with just the right amount of bubbles.

Finish: Long and satisfying, with a sweet, fruity aftertaste that invites another sip.

Food Pairing Suggestions:

Quite Nice! Sweet Red is a versatile wine that pairs well with a wide range of dishes, from savory to sweet. It complements spicy foods, barbecue, rich pasta dishes, and blue cheeses. It's also delightful with chocolate desserts or as a stand-alone after-dinner treat.

Serving Temperature: Enjoy at slightly chilled temperatures of 14-16°C (57-61°F) to enhance its fruity and sweet characteristics.

Winemaker's Notes:

Even enthusiasts who normally don't like sweeter wines will enjoy this wine with spicier dishes from all over the world. This wine loves hot pepper flavors.

Our Sweet Red blend from the Oltrepò Pavese region embodies our passion for creating wines that bring joy and celebration to any occasion, reflecting the rich viticultural heritage of Lombardia.
